It is time for another LEGACY CHANGER!! Please meet my dear friend Danielle Pilkinton. She is fun, faith-faithed, fearless, fierce and fiery!! She is living her dream life after so many twists and turns. Her wisdom is valuable beyond compare. If you are not where you thought you would be in life, take a listen...the whole story is the not written and YOU hold the pen!

What advice would you give your younger self:

Go to God first Listen before you take action

You are always enough. Don't be such a hard critic on yourself even when you do the funky things.

God molds us through our choices so we can help and mentor others on the other side!

What have you overcome that people told you that you could not:

Raise healthy, happy kids as a single Mom even after an abusive relationship. I told myself the abuse wasn't that bad because I hid it. That I made a bad choice and had to stay and endure. Then my daughter saw it and I knew I could not have her experience this. Had to find a way out no matter how scary.

I worked 3 jobs, we went through this season together and it made us stronger. When I was with my kids I chose to be present. Not to be thinking of all of the other things I could be/should be doing. More concerned in being a strong Mom and Dad not a best friend. They were raised with high standards.

Advice for women in your situation now:

Be grateful. Just find something to be grateful for then you are can find another thing and then next thing.....No matter what circumstances, draw near to God and He draws near to us and that is where you find true peace and joy.

What do you love about Mary Kay: What it stands for...the blessings it gives other.
